

CARMEL RIVER WATERSHED CONSERVANCY

MAY 2020 NEWSLETTER

Our outdoor spaces are more important than ever. We continue dedicated to protecting and restoring the dynamic and splendid Carmel River Watershed. Below, we're highlighting some of our newest and most exciting updates. Click on each story to read more. Please share!

Visit the CRWC
Website

2019-20 Education Program Serves 350 Students, New Schools

The Carmel River Watershed Conservancy (CRWC) team was able to reach over 350 children at 10 schools in the 2019-20 school year despite a shift to online learning late in the spring semester. Its...

Read more

www.carmelriverwatershed.org

---

Lagoon Project EIR Takes Leap Forward

Progress at Last! Earlier this year the County approved funds of $450,000 to resume the preparation of a Revised EIR for the Carmel River Lagoon and Scenic Road Protection. This included a contribution of $100,000 from the County...

Read more

www.carmelriverwatershed.org

---

CRWC Launches Watershed Report Card Project

Mikaela Bogdan, CRWC intern and CSU Monterey Bay graduate student, is taking on a new initiative to measure the health of the Carmel River Watershed. The initiative was begun in early 2020 by John Wandke...

Read more

www.carmelriverwatershed.org

---

Intern Spotlight - Janet Kung

Janet Kung's major at MIIS is international environmental policy with a specialization in Ocean and Coastal Resource Management. She is originally from Taiwan and grew up on the coast - surfing,...

Read more

www.carmelriverwatershed.org

Safe Pharms Disposal Benefits Watershed Health

What do you do with your expired or leftover pharmaceuticals? Do you throw them away? Flush them down the drain or toilet? The answer is neither. Monterey County offers a safe and easy alternative...

Read more

www.carmelriverwatershed.org